WELCOME

The Moore Studio has been capturing the essence of families for over a century. Our heritage is quality, beauty, and excellence. Our legacy is enduring portrait art that adorns the homes of our clients for generations. We are proud of our heritage and the history of relationships that have endured over the decades with our clients. We look forward to creating lasting art works for your family as well.

From the days of our founder, Robert Moore, through four "generations" of ownership, The Moore Studio has been a fixture in West Tennessee. Families have trusted us with their most precious moments because of the care and devotion we put into our portraits.

Our strength is in our caring. We exist to bless your family. We make certain you are relaxed and feeling confident that your portraits will be beautiful.

IN THEIR OWN WORDS

“Excellent in every way. He was kind, and had plenty of patience. Very professional, and did a awesome job.... I recommend him to everyone...” - Jocelyn Pitts

“Jason and the staff were very pleasant and well organized. We were surprised at how many pictures were made. Very impressed with pictures as well as options...” - Dana Hinson

CUSTOMIZE IT

Our crafted panels are the best way to capture a series of images for your home. Unique collections of three images, they combine artistry in photography and design. These single-framed pieces work in large spaces and intimate rooms as well.

A Fusion Panel blends 3 portraits into one image by artistically blurring the edges between them to make a single master piece. These panels make excellent primary art pieces or complement another larger print beautifully.

Panel Sizes 12x24" to 30x60" : From $626 to $2499

How to Reserve Your Session

CALL (731) 421-2622. We can answer your questions, and help reserve a time that works best for you. There are three things we'll need to take care of on this call:

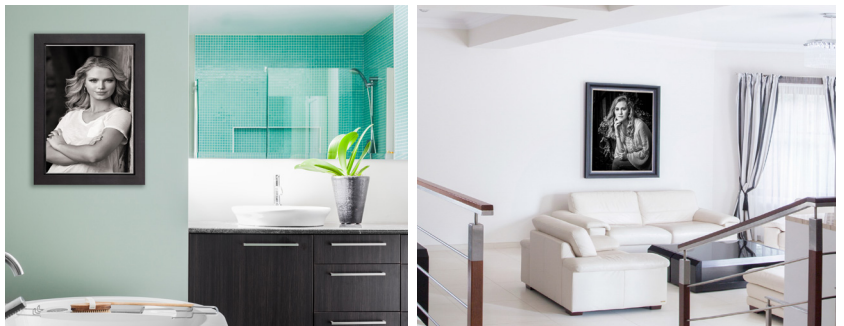

FIRST: We'll make your portrait planning appointment that works for you and your family. This fun and important step helps us all understand where and how your portraits will be displayed, how they will look, and gives us a common goal.

SECOND: We'll schedule your portrait session at a time convenient for you.

THIRD: THE REALLY EXCITING PART: We'll set up an appointment for you to return to view your images and complete your order (usually set for about 7 to 10 days after your session).
